AthletSys Securing World Athletics: Case of Cyber Blueprint for 2026 Sports Events

Abstract:

Leading Cyber Security Partner AthletSys Solutions Limited has just won the worldwide cyber security consulting contract for the 2026 international athletics event. Mr. John McGregor the chief executive officer of AthletSys Solutions, directs the Supreme Committee of the Cyber Security Operations Centres for this major sporting event. As part of his evaluation of cyber security preparedness, Mr. McGregor detailed the information systems infrastructure and security architecture that his consulting firm will coordinate for the athletic event. This case study discusses the worldwide cyber security preparations for the major athletic event, as well as the potential issues raised by Mr. Gregor during a meeting of a high-level committee.
